CONGRESSIONAL.

PROCEEDINGS IN BOTH HOUSES

The Sherman Funding Bill-Adoption of Import ant Amendments-Bills of a Private Nature Passed - Communications from the President,

In the Senate Friday Mr. Garland presented a petition from residents of and visitors to Hot Springs, arkansas, for an appropriation of $500,-600 for the improvement of the permanent Government reservation and the streets of Hot Spring It set forth that the Government is the owner measty all the most valuable property in Hot Bprings, and has a large number of lots to be sold, which improvement of the atreets will increase in value; that it already has large sums of money is its Treasury paid by the owners of the lots as purchase money and rent; that the springs are visited by large numbers of neonle from all parts of the world and numbers of people from all parts of the world, and the Government is deriving a large revenue from the medicinal waters there. Messrs. Garland, McPherson, Camden, and Voorhees severally urged upon the Appropriations Committee, to which the petition was referred, the necessity of early favorable action.

Mr. Morrill, from the Committee on Education and Labor, reported favorably, with amendments perfecting it in minor details, the bill to establish an educational fund and apply a perion of the proceeds of the public lands to public education and to provide for the more complete endowment and support of colleges for the advancement, of scientific and industrial education.

The latter portion of the morning hour was ecupled in the discussion of a proposed new order of business, and at one o'clock the consideration of the Sherman 5 per cent, bend bill was resumed.

The pending question was upon the amendment of Mr. Davis, of West Virginia. Mr. Sherman addressed the Senate. A discussion followed, par-ticipated in by Messes. Windom, Davis of West Virginia, Ingalis, and Edmunds, in which the point was made clear that the amendment, if adopted, while retaining to the Government the right to redeem the new bonds at any time after issue, would prevent their being redeemed until after all the three and a half per cents and all ex

After further discussion it was finally determine to take a vote upon the propositions of the amend-ment as a whole and the year and mays were demanded by Mr. Sherman. the amendment was adopted—yeas, 35; nays, 6. The following is the vote:

Mr. Buller said be was paired with Mr. Cameron

Mr. Butler said he was paired with Mr. Camer

ing subscriptions for the new bonds to be made at the postal money order offices upon the postmas-ters giving additional bonds was agreed to Mr. Sherman then moved to amend so as to make the bonds redeemable at the pleasure of the Government at any time after January 1, 1887. Mr. Davis, of West Virginia, said this was substantially the same proposition which had been voted upon.

Mr. Edmunds denied this, claiming that the single question as to a time bond had not been put

Mr. Harris moved to amend the amendment so as to lessen the period for the bond to three years. Agreed to—ayes, 33; noes, 26.

Mr. Sherman's amendment as modified, to provide for a three-yearbond, was then lost—ayes, 25;

The Senate then took up Mr. Vest's amendment, which makes the proposed issue of $200,000,000 of 3 per cents, the sole basis for an increase of circulation by any national banks now in existence for the circulation of any national bank bereafter to be established. Mr. Pugh submitted amendments modifying the provisions of the Vest amendments as follows: First, making more emphatic the provision that it shall apply only to banks hereafter organizing or increasing their capital. Second, striking out the provise which forfelts the charter of a national bank if it keeps bonds on deposit after they have caused to bear interest. Third, making sections -3159 and 5150 of the Revised Statutes (which the Vest amendment re-enacts) apply only to the new

A discussion followed, participated in by Messre. Hill, of Georgia; Pugh, Beck, and Hawley, when it was agreed to defer a vote until the amendment as proposed to be amended, together with the sec-tions repealed and re-enacted thereby, could be printed. Upon this agreement the bill was in-formally laid aside.
